

Meet the board of directors

Although it became a fully-fledged bank in 2007, Housing Finance Bank began that journey 50 years ago as a non-banking credit institution with a focus on mortgage finance for construction of residential houses. Providing oversight for different milestones which the bank has accomplished has been the visionary board of directors.

Of all indigenous banks in Uganda, Housing Finance Bank is the only one that has stood the test of time. The achievement which emphasises its solid foundation has been possible because of its strong senior management team. While operating as a fully-fledged commercial bank, it has built a strong brand and developed unique niche in housing.
