Composed of representatives from donors, United Nations entities, and civil society organizations, the WPHF is a global pooled funding mechanism which aims to re-energize action and stimulate a significant increase in financing for women's participation, leadership, and empowerment in peace and security processes and humanitarian response. The WPHF is a flexible and rapid financing mechanism. It supports quality interventions designed to enhance the capacity of local women to prevent conflict, respond to crises and emergencies, and seize key peacebuilding opportunities.

Since its launch in 2016, WPHF has been supporting over 55 civil society organizations and is present in 7 countries or group of countries. WPHF has granted 10 million USD in total, with another 7 million USD allocated for calls that are currently open or are about to open.

Against this background, the WPHF is pleased to announce the launch of a Call for Proposals from Civil Society Organizations representing and working on Conflict Prevention in Uganda. Second, local women's organizations must have the capacity to identify and respond to threats by establishing networks, early-warning systems and mechanisms that offer opportunities for dialogue and peacefully engagement. Finally, women's conflict prevention mechanisms must be connected to national and international reporting and response systems.

The WPHF will grant around 2 million USD over two years to Uganda. Project proposals should have a project duration of two years, within the below tier threshold and geographical focus:
