

Oliver SeedsTM

CAREER OPPORTUNITY IN TECHNICAL SEED SALES

Oliver Seeds is an integral part of DLF Seeds Ltd, the largest supplier of grass and forage seeds in the UK.

We are currently recruiting for a Seed Sales Advisor to cover an established customer base in the North of England. The area runs from the Humber River to Berwick on Tweed. With the current Government focus on SFI and natural solutions now is an ideal time to be considering a career in Seed Sales.

The role is to develop and support established retail and wholesale customer accounts with the company's comprehensive and proven range of forage grass, stewardship, root, and other seed products. Candidates should have a successful track record in agronomy and on-farm sales combined with a good knowledge of agricultural practice. Seed sales and technical experience will be highly advantageous but not a limiting factor.

The role is field and home office based, individuals will need to be self-motivated and have strong communication and influencing skills to service existing and develop new business with our customers.

A competitive package is on offer and because this is a proactive and mobile role, there is flexibility on location in the region.

For an informal and confidential discussion about the role, please call Vicky Wraight on 01386 791121 or email victoria.wraight@dlf.com
A full job description is available.

Please submit your CV together with a covering letter on how you meet the requirements of the role to Vicky Wraight using the email address above.
